

FERNANDO RODRÍGUEZ ANGOBALDO

Lima, 1972

Lawyer, specialized in Procedural Law, Commercial Law and Bankruptcy Law. Fernando has experience as attorney of and consultant to financial institutions, advises on complex constitutional, contentious-administrative and arbitration matters and represents clients in administrative proceedings.

He focuses on prevention strategies and conflict resolution before the Peruvian judiciary and the Constitutional Court. He is founding partner of Rodríguez Angobaldo Abogados and current firm's managing partner.

Education

- Law degree from the Universidad de San Martín de Porres (1990-1995)
- Master's in Company Law - Universidad de Lima (2004)
- Master's in Procedural Law and Conflict Resolution from the Universidad Peruana de Ciencias Aplicadas - UPC (2008)
- Management Program for Lawyers – Yale University (2013)

Memberships

Lima Bar Association