

JAIME HEREDIA TAMAYO

Lima, 1972

Lawyer specializing in Civil Procedure Law, Constitutional Procedure Law, Contentious Administrative and Arbitration Proceedings. He represents clients in contentious administrative proceedings regarding sanctions, regulatory and tax matters, both in judicial and arbitration courts in civil, corporate and infrastructure cases.

He is experienced in constitutional defense of oil companies regarding the protection of constitutional rights concerning diffused interests due to alleged violations of environmental rights, right to prior consultation and rights of uncontacted tribes. He is also experienced in matters regarding free competition.

Studies

- Lawyer (Universidad San Martín de Porres, 1997).
- Master's in Civil Procedure Law (Universidad San Martín de Porres).

Prior experience

- Muñiz, Olaya, Meléndez, Castro, Ono & Herrera Law Firm (May 1997 to March 2018). Senior Partner in the Litigation and Dispute Resolution Department.

Teaching experience

Professor of Civil Procedure Law I (Universidad San Martín de Porres – 2005-2015).

Memberships

Lima Bar Association.

Languages

Spanish and English.